Miami, FL - Following its successful Art Basel partnership with LOUIS XIII Cognac, Miami-based Delta Carbon Yachts announced details today on a series of curated VIP events held in conjunction with the recent Miami Yacht Show (February 15 - 19, 2018).

On the opening two days of the show, Delta Carbon Yachts joined forces with luxury app YachtLife, and with partner brands JetSmarter and FlexWheels, for an invitation-only VIP event at a luxurious Miami Bay waterfront estate. Guests, comprised mostly of yacht owners and Centurion card members, were treated to test rides, private tours, and boat show shuttle service onboard Delta Carbon's fleet of award-winning carbon fiber sport yachts.

And during the weekend of the show, Delta Carbon Yachts played host to yet another curated VIP event, this time at a luxury waterfront estate in Miami's Venetian Islands. Luxury brands JetSmarter, Haute Living and Luxe Living Realty joined in on the event to create the ultimate VIP experience, within close proximity to the show. Guests enjoyed live music, complimentary Rosé, and fun-filled test rides onboard the Delta Carbon fleet. Fan favorite Alex Jimenez, aka TheYachtGuy, was also in attendance and documented the event for his social media followers.

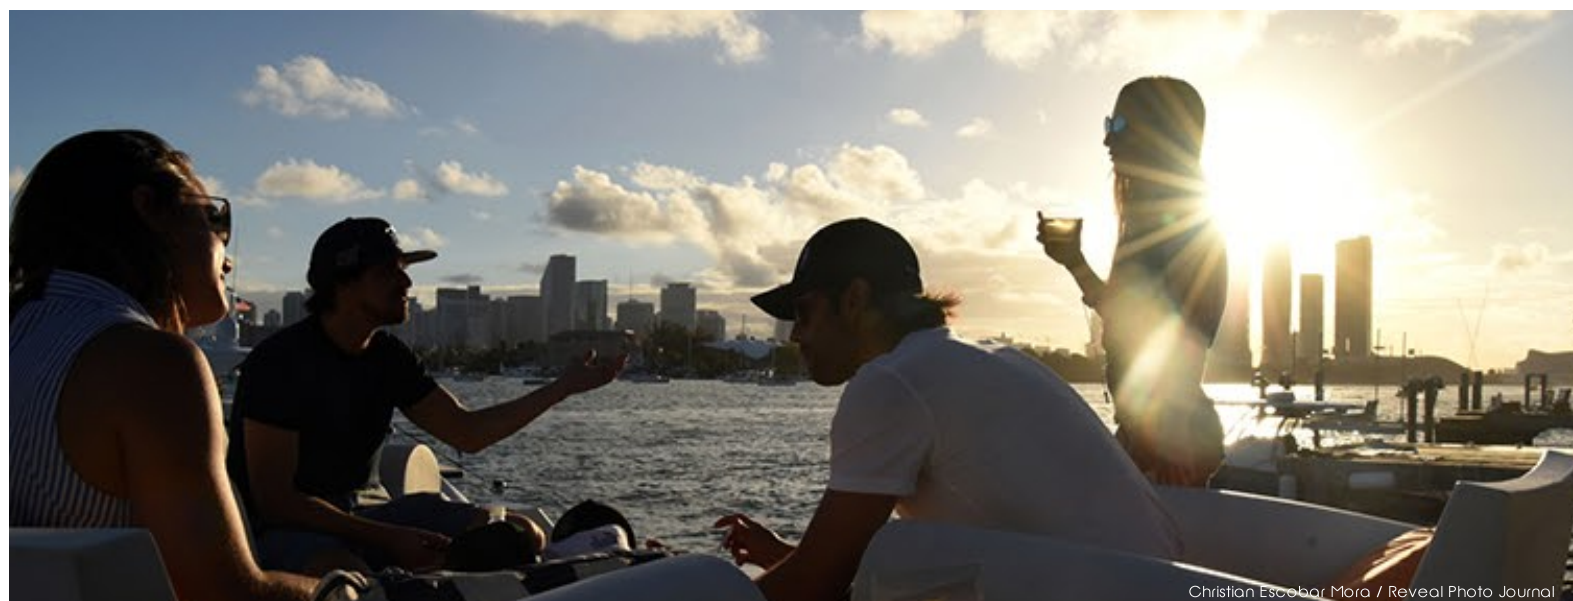

"We are always on the lookout for new opportunities to host intimate, curated events for our VIP clients, and to build relationships with partner luxury brands" says Chapman Ducote, Delta Carbon Yachts' Director of the Americas. "These type events provide a private, one-on-one setting for our clients to experience our carbon fiber sportyachts firsthand, and we look forward to many such events in the near future."

Next up for Delta Carbon Yachts is the display of a new Delta 54 Carbon sportyacht at the upcoming Palm Beach International Boat Show. For further information, contact media liaison Whitten ("Whit") Hall at 954-937-9448 or media@deltapowerboats.us

About Delta Carbon Yachts
